

I PUT MY BOOTS ON

Next to my house there is a lovely forest
There are some violets and stacks of hay

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play

I go there at noon and I take me pick nick
With my dolly and a white basket

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play

Berries I picked had so many I ate them
Berries I lick when I'm on my way

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play

On my way who did I meet but a prince and
So then I said how are you today

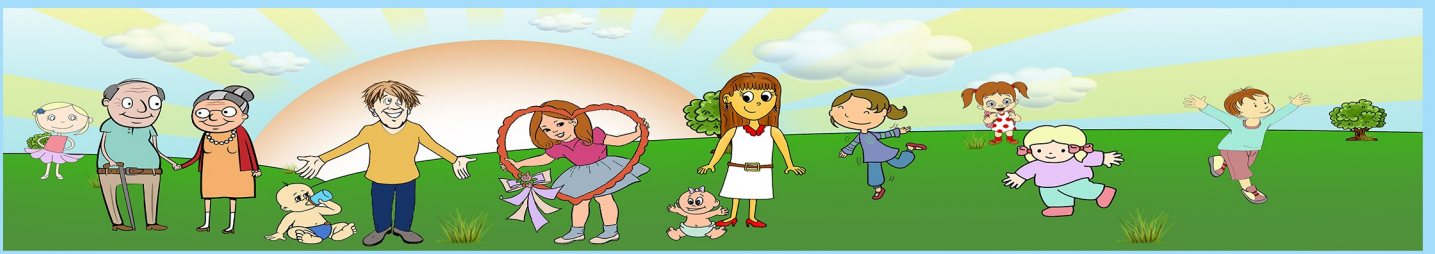

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play

He wanted me to go live in a townhouse
He wanted me to live in a palais

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play

But I prefer living right by the forest
Mummy and daddy I would like to stay

CHOIRS : I put my boots on and I put my hood on
I put my boots on going out to play
