

JOHN FROM THE MOON

Under the moon in the heart of spring
One hundred years ago must have been
Between the acorns under the leaves
Was born the smallest thing

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

‘bout the size of a little mushroom
The size of the flowers in bloom
Yellow and green like a parrot see
Standing on his feet

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

He used a tooth pick to make a cane
Limping and winking and playing games
In any weather every season
He lived in a pumpkin

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

Sometimes he would be seen passing by
In a nutshell he used for a ride
Along the path with the grass so high
Where they lived two mice

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

And when sometimes He would walk the woods
He would pick everything that he could
All the insects and creatures around
Would stare at him and shout

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

When in the wood he came to a pond
He was never stuck for very long
He could always find a little trick
He made a bridge with sticks

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon

All became silent the day he died
The rat the frog and the little mice
They all came to say their last goodbye
And then everyone cried

CHOIRS : John from the Moon, John from the Moon
John from the Moon, John from the Moon
